FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Wyffels Hybrids Names Adam Darrington as District Sales Manager

GENESEO, III. (February 19, 2018) — Adam Darrington has been named a district sales manager for Wyffels Hybrids. He will work directly with corn growers in southwest Iowa, helping place superior genetics with the most advanced traits on their farms, while working to build a team of Wyffels Seed Representatives. As a former area sales manager with Eldon C. Stutsman Inc., Darrington brings seed sales and agronomy experience to his new role. He presently works on his family's grain and livestock farm in Pottawattamie County and is a graduate of Iowa State University.

"Adam's lifelong involvement in agriculture proves he knows what corn growers in Pottawattamie and Shelby counties need to be successful," said Bill Backhaus, Region Manager. "His commitment to helping farmers succeed will be an asset to Wyffels Hybrids as we continue to bring quality seed corn and service to growers in southwest Iowa."

About Wyffels Hybrids

In 1946, Wyffels Hybrids was established with a vision to produce seed that could help friends and neighbors be more successful. That promise has resulted in significant growth and opportunity as Wyffels continues to build a team of employees who share that vision for the seed business, and passion for serving customers.

Wyffels Hybrids, headquartered in Geneseo, Ill., is one of the nation's largest independent seed corn companies. Focusing strictly on developing and marketing elite corn hybrids, the company is dedicated to providing corn growers in Illinois, Iowa, Southern Wisconsin, Southwestern Minnesota, Southeastern South Dakota and the Ohio River Valley with exceptional products, the latest agronomic information, and unmatched customer service and product support.
