FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Wyffels Hybrids Names Emilee Earlywine as District Sales Manager

GENESEO, III. (September 27, 2018) — Emilee Earlywine has been named a district sales manager for Wyffels Hybrids. She will work directly with corn growers in Monona and Harrison counties in Iowa, helping place superior genetics with the most advanced traits on their farms, while working to build a team of Wyffels Seed Representatives. Earlywine is a graduate of Iowa State University where she studied agricultural business. She most recently worked as a sales account manager with LG Seeds and brings seed sales and agronomy experience to her new role.

“Through growing up and helping on her family’s farm, Emilee has developed a great knowledge and passion for this industry,” said Matt Bashor, Region Manager. “She understands the importance of putting the needs of our customers first, and is dedicated to helping farmers be successful. I have great confidence in Emilee and I look forward to watching her serve our new and current customers in western Iowa.”

About Wyffels Hybrids

In 1946, Wyffels Hybrids was established with a vision to produce seed that could help friends and neighbors be more successful. That promise has resulted in significant growth and opportunity as Wyffels continues to build a team of employees who share that vision for the seed business, and passion for serving customers.

Wyffels Hybrids, headquartered in Geneseo, Ill., is one of the nation’s largest independent seed corn companies. Focusing strictly on developing and marketing elite corn hybrids, the company is dedicated to providing corn growers in Illinois, Iowa, Southern Wisconsin, Southwestern Minnesota, Southeastern South Dakota and the Ohio River Valley with exceptional products, the latest agronomic information, and unmatched customer service and product support.
